LABOUR DISPUTE OF MUKESH TEXTILES, SHIMOGA

(3) SRI S. M. SHEERANALY CHANDRASEKHAR (Hosangar).—

Will the Minister for Labour be pleased to state :—

(a) whether the case of a labour dispute of Mukesh Textiles, Shimoga referred to the Industrial Tribunal vide No. ID 66/67 is still pending without taking any final decision since in the year 1966;

(b) the reasons for such inordinate delay in the disposal of this case?

SRI AZEEZ SAIT.—(Minister for Labour)

(a) Yes ; the case is pending before the Industrial Tribunal, Bangalore since September, 1967 but not from 1966.

(b) The arguments in ID No.66 of 1965 were completed by about the end of June, 1972. While going through the records for writing the award, it was felt by the then Presiding Officer that the parties should be heard on certain points required for decision in deciding the dispute. Since the parties requested for adjournment the case could not be heard till the end of 1972. In the meanwhile the Presiding Officer was transferred and the present Presiding Officer took charge on 9th March 1973. The case was last posted for hearing on 20th August 1973. Again the parties moved for adjournment. The case is now finally posted to 3rd September 1973.
